

The Society of Inkwell Collectors Gets a New Lease on Life!!

Thank you to all who responded to our plea for volunteers – your support and offerings are what the Society needed.

We are pleased to announce the following new Directors and Volunteers:

Executive Director – Alan Zimmerle

Alan joined the Society in 1991 and has been collecting inkwells since 1987. He comes to us from Hewlett Packard where he is Vice President for Global Delivery. He has extensive experience with business development (including strategic planning), staff recruitment and development, process improvement, and other areas of business development that he is looking forward to leveraging in an area that he loves – inkwells! Secretary – Jeffrey Pisetzner

Jeff joined the Society in 2007, and immediately took advantage of the nearby 2008 Convention (he even won one of the door prizes!). Jeff is an instructor, coordinator and advisor at Pierce College in Washington. (jpisetzner@msn.com ~ 253-841-4197)

Membership Coordinator – David McCants

David has been a member since 1995. He retired a few years ago from a professorship and Chair position at Indiana University – Purdue University in Fort Wayne, IN. (mccants_david@comcast.net ~ 260-625-5925)

Webmaster – Fritz Wirth

Fritz, with information technology and website management experience, has been a member of the Society since 2000. He comes from a family of collectors – his wife collects perfume bottles! (fritz.wirth@att.net ~ 407-397-0241)

Stained Finger Columnist – Jane Martin

Jane, currently a teacher, is now assisting Editor Barbara Bureker with various articles for The Stained Finger. Look for her in upcoming issues! (sampljane@att.net ~ 440-248-8295)

Congratulations!!
